The International Insolvency Institute presents its 13th Annual Conference at Columbia University Law School in New York

The International Insolvency Institute presents its 13th Annual Conference in the Ivy League ambiance of New York's historic Columbia University. The Conference Faculty and Delegates include some of the most prominent and experienced insolvency professionals, Judges and credit professionals in the world. The III Columbia Conference will feature current reports and analyses of the world's most important international insolvency issues and controversies delivered by preeminent speakers from around the world.

We are very pleased to welcome Thomas C. Baxter, Executive Vice President and General Counsel of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York as our very special Keynote Speaker for our 13th Annual Conference. Mr. Baxter is a senior member of the Bank's Management Committee and is Deputy General Counsel of the Federal Open Market Committee, and has been involved in all of the Fed's major initiatives and in all of the most important financial crises in the United States and abroad for over 25 years. Mr. Baxter will be speaking on the topic of "Resolving the Unresolvable: The Pathway to Ending Too Big To Fail"

The Conference will also feature one of the III's renowned Legendary Conference Dinners which will take place at one of New York's grand private clubs – the Metropolitan Club of New York.

We welcome everyone to our wonderful days in New York and to our terrific Conference at Columbia University.

METROPOLITAN CLUB

The Metropolitan club is one of New York's most elegant private clubs. Located on East 60th Street on New York's fashionable East side, the Metropolitan Club was organized 120 years ago. Its founders were prominent commercial, financial, and civic leaders of the time. The club property was acquired from the Duchess of Marlborough in London and the first president of the club was J. Pierpont Morgan. The club has one of the most memorable locations in New York and everyone will thoroughly enjoy the opportunity to have our Legendary Dinner at this wonderful venue.

MERIDIEN HOTEL

The Conference Hotel will be the Five Star, Parker Meridien in mid-town Manhattan that overlooks beautiful Central Park.
